

SASP'S GROWING FAMILY (2)

SASP is pleased to be able to announce that we are now supporting a second farm school. De Mistkraal Primary Farm School, at Patensie, has received essential educational supplies, including a printer and paper. Pictured are some of the school staff receiving their much needed equipment. We hope that this is the beginning of a long and fruitful partnership

UITVLUCHT "OSCARs"

Acclaimed South African film director, Regardt van den Burgh, has premiered his latest project. It stars Clara Joubert, his wife, and formerly a teacher at Uitvlucht, and the cast includes a number of the children from the school. Some SASP personnel are featured as characters in the movie!

The gala premiere was attended by Tom and Saff, and the movie is released in cinemas next year.

CANON WEAVER COOKS UP A STORM

A Gala Dinner was held in June at the Royal Ruchi Indian Restaurant in Abbots Bromley. Fifty diners enjoyed fine cuisine, with a guest appearance from our very own renowned chef. The meal was followed by entertainment provided by an Indian dance troupe. A most pleasant and successful evening raised £650 for the charity. Thanks to Rafiq Choudry at the Royal Ruchi.
